

HISTORY AND POLITICAL EDUCATION

A secondary school in Uganda is not inclined to any particular religion. The School Parents and Teachers' Association is pushing the school to support students from different religious backgrounds in the school. The head prefect suggests that the best way to do this is by installing a prefect in charge of religion.

Support material: a Catechist ordaining a student

TASK: Having been chosen as the religious prefect, prepare a letter to the Headteacher explaining the different religious beliefs and how they can be supported in the school.
