In 2013 more than 1 million nonresidents visited Uganda, and it's estimated that about half of them stay at least one night. Most tourists come from Uganda neighboring countries, Europe and North America. (16 percent of all visitors) are Kenyans, Rwanda (10 percent), the United Kingdom (11 percent) and the United States (15 percent) are tourist's most common countries of residence.

On their trip to Uganda, over 40% of tourists visit other African countries, most importantly Kenya (visited by 20% of all Ugandan tourists), Tanzania 10%, and Rwanda 10%. About 90% of tourists travel in groups of four or fewer. Some 32 percent of tourists come for business reasons, 11 percent for meeting or conferences, 17 percent for leisure, 20 percent for family, 5 percent for spiritual/ religious purposes and 2 percent for cultural tourism, the remaining tourist come to Uganda for research non-governmental organization (NGO) work, or education.
